

Client: Private

Project: Alteration and extension of existing residential property

Location: Jesmond, Newcastle upon Tyne

Initially commissioned to carry out a valuation survey, developing into the design and management of works to alter and extend the property. Responsibilities included preparation of all plans and specification documents, submission of applications for relevant consents, inviting tenders from local building contractors and overseeing the works on site.